Items of Interest Gleaned from Our Exchanges

Pender Times: R. G. Kingston and family are up to Crystal lake this week.

Wynot Tribune: Donald Crouch came up from South Sioux City Monday for a short visit with the home folks here.

Tekamah Herald: Miss Ross Moore went to Crystal lake Tuesday where she will join a party of friends for a few weeks outing.

Concord items in Dixon Journal: Mrs. Larue Foote and children left for Hubbard Thursday to join her husband where they will make their future home.

Martinsburg items in Ponca Journal: H. E. Jacobs motored to Crystal lake Sunday. Mrs. Ben Minter who was operated on in Sioux City last week, is getting along nicely at this writing.

Bloomfield Monitor: Tod Christopherson and daughters, Retta and Martha; and niece, Gertrude Combs, came over from Crofton Tuesday afternoon to bring home Miss Lydia Needham who has been visiting there for a week.

Ponca Journal: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davey and family and Dr. Lewis spent Sunday at Crystal lake. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rogosch and daughter came up Saturday from South Sioux City to visit over Sunday at the Fred Rogosch home.

Lyons Mirror: Miss Helen Adair of Sioux City visited her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. P. Petersen this week. Jo Gorham and son of Walthill, and J. M. King of Homer were Lyons visitors Friday. Mr. Gorham is a son-in-law of John Ruddy.

Ponca Advocate: Rev. Geo. Bray returned Monday from Sioux City and South Sioux City where he visited friends for a week. Nora O'Hanlon of South Sioux City returned home Monday noon after a two week's visit at the home of J. Hammell and family.

Newcastle Times: W. A. Verzani and family spent Sunday at Crystal lake. An auto load of Indians passed through town Monday, coming from the reservation up north and were on their way to the Winnebago reservation near Homer for a visit. What a marked difference in the mode of travel since the days when the Indians rode on horseback in single file over these same roads.

Lyons Sun: Not one line of the recent tax list edition of the Mirror was printed at the home office. The entire edition, ads and all, was made up and printed at a ready print house in Sioux City and the bundles shipped here and only the mailing of the papers done here. The credit for the work which should go to the Sioux City ready print house, is being claimed by the local publisher.

Allen News: The Frank Clough and Lon Travers families are spending the week at Crystal Lake. The H. Curtis family shipped out their goods this week for their new home at South Sioux City. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Warner and Frank Hill spent a few days at Crystal Lake last week, returning Thursday. George Twamley returned Friday from a visit at the home of his wife's folks at Sturgis, S. D. Mrs. Twamley and the children remained for a longer stay.

Emerson Enterprise: Jeff Taylor left Tuesday for Winnebago to make preparations to take over the Chieftain. J. M. Liewer and E. A. Beiersdorf have rented a couple of cottages at Crystal lake and their families are enjoying the week at that popular resort. The gentlemen spend the days here at their places of business and go up on the evening passenger. S. E. Cobb, for many years editor of the Enterprise, who has lived at Los Angeles several years, fell from a street car in that city recently and was seriously injured, being unconscious for several days during which time his life was despaired of. At last reports he was recovering.

Wayne Democrat: Fred Berry was a passenger to Lincoln Wednesday on legal business. Don Gildersleeve and Arno Jones went to Crystal lake Saturday afternoon for a three day outing. Miss Madeline Davey and Miss Florence Coats of Sioux City came Monday to spend the week in the F. S. Berry home. Cash Wadsworth was a passenger to Crystal lake the first of the week to spend a few days camping. He returned home Monday. O. R. Bowen and family went to Crystal lake Monday morning where they will spend about two weeks camping, boating and fishing. F. G. Phillee, wife and two children autoed to Sioux City last Thursday, later going to Crystal lake for over night. They returned home Friday evening.

Sioux City Journal, 6th: Born in Sioux City, Ia., Saturday, August 5, 1916, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davey, 1411 West Fifth street, a daughter. Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Kearney and daughters, Miss Editha Kearney, and Miss Gertrude Kearney, have motored to Tekamah, Neb., for a visit. John Milford, of South Sioux City, who suffered a broken leg several days ago when a team ran away with him, is improving. He is at St. Vincent's hospital. F. G. Stanand yesterday filed a petition for a divorce from Mrs. Louise Stanand on the ground of desertion. They were married at Sioux City eighteen years ago. In February of 1913 Mrs. Stanand left her husband and has since been living in New York, he says. The cast yesterday was removed from the left hip of James Reilly, 14 years old, of Jackson, Neb., who was dragged behind a runaway horse several weeks ago. The hip bone was wrenched apart and was incased in a metal plate. He is at the St. Joseph's hospital.

"My Good Man, Don't You Ever Forget Anything?"

Walthill Times: T. L. Hunter of Homer was in Walthill Monday afternoon, looking as though he had had an appointment with the cyclone end of a threshing. A letter received in the village this week from Dr. Ream, at San Diego, states that on a recent trip, fifty miles at sea, he caught 500 pounds of fish (variety indecipherable). "You won't believe it," he writes, "but it is true." He has received an appointment as surgeon for the Santa Fe railway, and twice a week he lectures in the Exposition hospital for the American Defense League. Recently he received his commission as 1st lieutenant of the medical reserve corps, after what he describes as a grilling test and examination. Mabel is looking well and is growing. Mrs. Ream is feeling fine and the doctor states that he is receiving a very satisfactory practice.

Wakefield Republican: Mrs. G. H. Pranger accompanied her mother as far as Omaha Tuesday. The latter was on her way to Lincoln to visit her daughter, Mrs. George Stone. Mr. Stone is president of the Lincoln baseball team which holds second place in the western league this season. Charles Paul is again in charge of the Emerson Enterprise. The lease to Jeff Taylor was until September 1, but it suited both to terminate it sooner. Taylor takes the Winnebago Chieftain and Paul issues this week's Enterprise. As he has just finished the law-course at the University and has been admitted to the bar, Paul will combine legal work with his editorial management, securing a competent man to assist with the paper. His journalistic experience and college training ought to make him a first class newspaper man. We are glad to extend him a hearty welcome on his return to the editorial ranks of Dixon county.

Sioux City Journal, 5th: James Carvel, former operator of the Crystal Lake park hotel, yesterday was sued for a divorce by Mrs. Elizabeth J. Carvel, a manicure. She declares her husband's cruelty endangered her health and life. The Carvels were married February 24, 1913, and lived together until April 1 of this year. A raid at 1000 Fourth street last evening produced one man and two women prisoners. Mrs. Adolf Boynton, known as Mabel Moore, was arrested and charged with maintaining a nuisance. Kathleen Williams and Frank Brown were charged with being inmates of a disorderly house and were also arrested. Bottles from a passing motor car showered on a residence near West Fourth and Omaha streets last night about 11 o'clock. The bombardment was reported to the police. A few minutes later Alfred Anderson, of Ponca, Neb., and Lee Trevitt, of South Sioux City, Neb., were arrested and charged with the act. Charges of disturbing the peace were placed against them.

Winnebago Chieftain: Mrs. W. H. Clapp and Miss Gretchen Clapp of Homer visited with the Lou Kilmer family last week. Miss Georgia Mansfield and Miss Elizabeth Hileman of Homer attended the Chautauqua Saturday afternoon. Jeff Taylor of Emerson, and Heinie Wagner, of the Homer Star, made this office a fraternal call Thursday. A rumor has been circulated that the Chieftain has been sold to R. J. Taylor of the Emerson Enterprise. That the rumor has gone to the majority of the surrounding towns seems rather strange since we know nothing of any such change. Mr. Taylor was in Winnebago one day last week looking over the Chieftain plant. We leased the Chieftain and expect to run it at least until our lease runs out. In this connection we wish to make amends for an unjust suspicion which we had concerning this same deal. We understand a certain man was trying to change the management of the Chieftain for political reasons. We know this was untrue and we wish to rectify our error as much as possible.

Valuation Less, But Taxes No Higher

Seattle, Wash., Spokesman-Review, Aug. 1, 1916: While the adjustment of values in the county clipped $8,000,000 from the assessed valuation, County Commissioner Joseph Bishop, who has been studying expenses under prohibition, declared yesterday that the tax levy will not be increased this fall.

Commissioner Bishop found in his investigation that there is but 111 inmates in the county poorfarm as compared to 154 a year ago. He cites that institution as operated at a big saving under prohibition.

He declares that the jail, sheriff's office, courts and other offices are maintained at a big saving under prohibition, as shown by the data at the office of the county auditor.

"When I say that there will be no increase in the tax levy this year I am speaking for the county, and know that we will not be obliged to increase our levy," said Commissioner Bishop. "Prohibition has cut the cost already, and it can be predicted it will work a greater saving to the county next year."

The jail has fewer prisoners, the poorfarm fewer inmates, and the courts have less criminal work. We are now inside the appropriation, while last year the county faced a deficit at the end of the year.

The fact the assessor has reduced the assessed valuations $8,000,000 means we must use care in fixing the levy, but we will be able to let it stand without an increase.

While the county auditor's force has not completed the tabulations on expenses for July, it is expected a noticeable decrease in operating the office of sheriff, prosecutor, the jail, the poorfarm and courts will be seen.

The prisoners in the county jail yesterday were 45. July 31, 1915, there were 150.

Demands for county charity are less than last year at the end of July, according to County Charity Commissioner H. W. Arvin.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and restoring nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists. 75c.

Hughes Points the Way

The speech of the Republican candidate for President was a keynote speech, indeed. Not one person in the great audience at the Carnegie Hall meeting was in doubt for one moment as to just what he meant by everything he said.

His address was comprehensive, logical, clear and all sufficient for the occasion. There can be no dispute as to this. Plainly Mr. Hughes is a man who "knows what he wants when he wants it," and it is the opinion of political authorities who heard him and who have since read his remarks that he knows, also, how to get it.

It was incumbent upon the Republican candidate to confine the scope of his remarks to the limitations of the occasion, but his crushing analysis of the shortcomings of the present administration of the government is merely an earnest of what the tone and the contents of his speeches will be when he gets on the stump.

At Carnegie Hall Mr. Hughes adverted to every general question that is apt to be a serious issue in the campaign and in language that will be absolutely clear to every man or woman able to read he stated his opinions, his convictions and his purposes. On the stump he will argue those points in detail. As an orator he is eloquent, his personality attractive and his marshalling of facts so cohesive that he holds his audience to the end. He makes it easy for them to follow him and his points are not lost.

There was nothing equivocal, nothing apologetic in the Republican candidate's speech of acceptance. He called a spade a spade, and the unanimous opinion of those who heard him was that he shot to the center and rang the bell. The Republican campaign is now open, and those who will speak and write and work for the success of the Republican ticket can wish for no more adequate campaign document, no more satisfactory statement of issues than are found in the candidate's salutatory.

Brief Sentences Featuring the Speech of Acceptance of Charles E. Hughes.

America First and America Efficient.

We are too great a country to require of our citizens who are engaged in peaceful vocations the sort of military service to which they are now called.

We cherish no illusions. We know that the recurrence of war is not to be prevented by pious wishes.

We denounce all plots and conspiracies in the interest of any foreign nation.

Adequate preparedness is not militarism.

During this critical period, the only danger of war has lain in the weak of the Administration.

The Nation has no policy of aggression toward Mexico. We have no desire for any part of her territory.

We propose that in the competitive struggle that is about to come the American workingman shall not suffer.

This representative gathering is a happy augury. It means the strength of reunion. It means that the party of Lincoln is restored, alert, effective.

The dealings of the Administration with Mexico constitutes a confused chapter of blunders. It is a record which cannot be examined without a profound sense of humiliation.

We must take Vera Cruz to get Huerta out of office and trust to other nations to get our own citizens out of peril. What a travesty of international policy!

Destroying the government of Huerta, we left Mexico to the ravages of revolution.

I stand for adequate Federal Workmen's compensation laws.

The Administration was to seize and punish Villa for his outrage on our soil. It has not punished any one; we went in only to retire.

I favor the vote for women.

THE COMPELLING PERORATION TO MR. HUGHES' ACCEPTANCE SPEECH.

We live in a fateful hour. In a true sense, the contest for the preservation of the Nation is never ended. We must still be imbued with the spirit of heroic sacrifice which gave us our country and brought us safely through the days of Civil War. We renew our pledge to the ancient ideals of individual liberty, of opportunity denied to none because of race or creed, of unswerving loyalty. We have a vision of America prepped and secure; strong and just, equal to her task; an exemplar of the capacity and efficiency of a free people. I endorse the platform adopted by the Convention and accept its nomination.
